Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestic.

WEDNESDAY, February 6, 1751.

No. 302.

TURIN, September 9.

A Royal Edict has been issued, forbidding the Exportation of Corn, Flour, or Grain of any Kind, out of his Majesty's Dominions, upon several Penalties, in order to facilitate the filling the Public Magazines.

Prague, Sept. 11. We are making vast Quantities of Fire-Arms, Swords, Bayonets, &c. in this City and other Places in Bohemia, and frequently send away Waggon-Loads of them to the Imperial Regiments in Hungary. We are also told, that though all the Empress's Troops are complete, yet Recruits are raising all over the Austrian Provinces; which it is supposed is owing to the Motions of the Turks on the Side of Hungary and Transilvania.

Naples, Sept. 11. The Consort of the Counsellor Copellani, deceased, who had been confined in the Castle of Oeuf ever since the Year 1744. for having spoken very disrespectfully of the Government, is at last restored to her Liberty.

The Duke d'Aquaro, who had been banished from Court to his own Domains in the Country, by Order of his Majesty, has likewise procured his Majesty's free Permission to return to this City.

The Count de Conversano was ordered, some few Days ago, by Virtue of a Sentence pass'd by the Judge of the Court, to pay all the Debts that were due from him to his Domestics, and to discharge them from their respective Posts; and that Nobleman refusing to conform to the said Sentence of the Court, the Judge complained thereof to his Majesty, who ordered the said Count to be put under an Arrest, in one of our Castles; but as that Nobleman is at present very much indisposed the Court has ordered that the Execution of his Majesty's Commands, in regard to his Confinement, be suspended till he recovers his Health.

Colonel Don Janvier Colonna, Brother of the Prince de Stigliano, who had been confined for above these two Months last past in the Castle of Iselria, on Account of his clandestine Marriage, has been recalled from his Exile, and has procured his Majesty's free Permission to appear again at Court.

An Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated October 2.

'Our last Advices from Rome bring, that the great Noise 'that the Republic of Venice has made about the Pope's Bull, 'which divides the spiritual Jurisdiction of the Patriarchship of 'Aquileia, may aptly enough be compared with a Fire of Straw, 'which goes out almost as soon as kindled. The conjecturing 'Politicians pretend, however, to have discovered, that this 'Step of his Holiness was a Consequence of certain secret Intrigues, whereof the good Pontiff was to have been the Dupe, 'and which were design'd to embroil the Republic of Venice 'with the Court of Vienna; and they have published, that it 'was to support its Rights both against the Empress Queen and 'the Pope, that the Republic was putting itself in a respectable 'Situation; but the Manner in which the Court of Vienna 'took this Affair, has greatly disappointed the Authors of these 'Intrigues. The Serene Republic made an Out cry at first, 'with no other View than that it should not be concluded from 'its Silence, that it entirely gave Consent. The Senate read 'his Holiness's Bull with Respect, and the Doge pronounced as 'usual, Reponatur sum cæteris; the Meaning of which is, that 'it should be put in the Chest where all the other Decrees of 'Rome are. As to the Preparations which the Republic is making by Land and Sea, these Measures are taking with pretty 'much the same View, that the Empress of Russia is uniting 'her Forces towards the Gulf of Finland, not to attack, but to 'prevent being attack'd, by putting herself in a respectable Posture, without having any Design to disturb the Tranquility of her Neighbours. The Reason of the Republic's acting in this Manner is probably from what has lately passed at the Porte, where there may possibly happen a sudden Revolution which may overturn the Power of the Sultan and the Grand Vizir. What would, after such an Event, be the first Enterprize of the revolted Turks, but to fall violently on the Christians? It is without Doubt, this Reflection which has caused the Republic to put itself in a Condition to prevent being attacked altogether unprovided.'

Naples, Sept. 15. A few Days ago express Orders from the King were sent to the Chamber of S. Chiara, not to give Execution for the future to the Bulls from Rome, especially those concerning the Coadjutories that tend to the immediate Succession to Benefices. On the 30th past, two of the King's Half Galliès sailed from this Port to cruize on the Coast of Calabria against the Barbary Pyrates. On the 11th Instant a German Officer was arrested at the Request of the Empress, for the treacherous Murder and Robbery he had committed upon the Person of a German lieutenant Colonel, who in his Travels to Italy, took him as his Companion, and entertained him at his own Expence.

Rome, Sept. 15. Cardinal Landi, Archbishop of Benevento, has given up to the Pope that Archbishoprick, upon Condition of reserving to himself a Pension of 3000 Crowns per Ann. M. Durini, Bishop of Veltorra, who is still in Confinement in the Castle of St. Angelo, persisting obstinately not to renounce that Bishoprick, a Process is forming against him, in order to deprive him of it, by declaring him distracted in Mind. A Report prevails about this City, that the Disagreements between the Pope and the Republic of Venice will be reconciled by the Mediation of the King of Sardinia.

Florence, September 18. The Regency has appointed a Deputation of five Noblemen, amongst which are the Secretaries of State and War, to examine the Genealogies, by which, agreeable to the new Regulation, the Tuscan Nobility are to prove their Birth and Descendency, in order to be placed according to their proper Rank. This Justification is very disagreeable to the Tuscan Nobility, as many of them, and even the principal Families, are at a Loss to make necessary Proofs of three hundred Years Nobility, in order to be placed in the first Class. An Apartment is preparing at one of the Emperor's Palaces, for the Reception of Prince Esterhasi, the Emperor's Ambassador to the Court of Naples, who is shortly expected in this City on his Journey to that Court. An Edict of the Duke of Modena has lately appeared in this City, by which his Highness grants the entire Exemption of all Taxes, for the Term of ten Years, on all Merchandizes that shall be sent by the new Road which he has made from Modena through the Garfagnana, to Massa and Carrara, promising that People shall find all Conveniences for the Transport of them; which Step will in some measure tend to the Prejudice of the Commerce of Tuscany, and thereby frustrate the Chief View the Emperor had in making a new Road at a great Expence from hence to Bologna. A small English Vessel with Goods is already arrived at Massa, and another was daily expected, which shews that the opening of that Road will greatly prejudice the Commerce of Leghorn, and the Passage of Goods through this State to Bologna.

Brussels, Oct. 5. A Dispute having arisen between the People of Mechlin and those of Louvain, the former having greatly hindered the latter from proceeding in their Work of cutting the new Canal from Louvain to Mechlin, on pretence that the People of Louvain had not paid them the Sums agreed on for Leave to cut through their Grounds and Gardens; and his

Highness

Highneſs Prince Charles of Lorrain having examined into this Affair, has made a Decree in Favour of the People of Louvain, whereby the People of Mechlin are ordered to ſuffer the Workmen to go on peaceably with their Work, and promiſing that thoſe of Louvain ſhall be obliged to pay them the Sums agreed for in the Month of March next at farthest. On the 29th paſt, two French Commiſſaries arrived here from Paris, with Orders to diſcharge all the Debts the French contracted in the Province of Brabant, during the late War. By Letters from Paris of the 2d of October, we are informed, that Orders are ſent to the Intendants of the Provinces to make out Liſts of the Revenues of the Eccleſiaſtics, and in Caſe of Refuſal, to ſeize upon their Temporalities. The ſame Letters ſay, that the Abbe de Res, whom the King had named Almoner to the Meſdames, has been turned out of that Employment, on Account of his having aſſiſted at the Aſſembly of the Clergy.

Conſtantinople, Aug. 15. There has been a great Ferment among the Janizaries ſince the Beginning of this Month. Their Aga was ſent for to the Seraglio the 7th Inſtant, and the following Night about 20 of the moſt ſeditious Janizaries were ſecured, and immediately ſtrangled, and their Bodies thrown into the Sea. Two Days after a Body of two thouſand Janizaries received Orders to march, but without ſaying whither; upon which it was generally ſuppoſed that they were to ſile off to the Black Sea; but ſoon after it was known that their Route was made out for the Frontiers of Perſia.

Liſbon, Aug. 26. The King having been informed that the Barbary Corſairs greatly infeſt the Coaſts of the Kingdom of Algarve, and ſometimes plunder Villages by the Sea ſide, his Majeſty has ordered a Squadron of Xebecques and other light Veſſels, to be ſent out in queſt of thoſe Rovers, as ſoon as poſſible.

Naples, Sept. 4. The Barbary Corſairs begin to infeſt our Coaſts again; and 'tis but a few Days ſince we have received the diſagreeable News, that ſeveral of our Merchantmen have fallen into their Hands.

Madrid, Sept. 5. Preparations are making at Court for the Journey which their Majeſties intend to take next Month to Avila, in Old Caſtile. People talk differently about the Motives of their Journey; but thoſe who pretend to know the true reaſon of it, think that it is with a View to regulate ſome important Affairs between this Court and that of Portugal.

'Tis confirmed, that the King has approved of the Project for rendering the River Ebro navigable from the Sea to Saragoſſa, and that it will ſpeedily be put in Execution.

Upon Advice which the Court has received, that the Corſairs of Barbary were a great Obſtruction to the Navigation of the Subjects of this Monarchy, eſpecially upon the Coaſts of Valencia and Catalonia, the King has ſent Orders to Cadiz to fit out two Men of War as ſoon as poſſible, in order to join the other two fitted ſome Time ago, for cruizing againſt the Barbary Pyrates.

Leghorn, Sept. 7. The King of Pruſſia intending to have Conſuls in the principal Ports of Italy, has appointed one to reſide at Leghorn in that Quality.

Rome, Sept. 8. The Affair of Hohenloe ſeems for ſome Time paſt to have occaſioned a good deal of Uneaſineſs, and it is aſſured that the Pope has wrote in very ſtrong Terms to the Emperor upon this Occaſion, in order to recommend to him the Intereſt of the Catholics againſt the Enterprizes which the Evangelic Body might form againſt them. We learn from Ferrara, that the Director of the Treaſury of that Duchy vaniſhed a few Days ago, and carried off about 8000 Crowns.

Rome, Sept. 8. The Chevalier de St. George had on Saturday laſt a private Conference with his Holineſs, which continued a conſiderable Time; and afterwards ſet out directly for Albano, accompanied by his Son, ſtiled the Cardinal of York.

Venice, Sept. 15. They write from Conſtantinople, that the Kan of Crim Tartary is making ſtrong Inſtances to obtain Permiſſion to make Incurſions on the Ruſſian Territories, but hitherto in vain; the Grand Signior perſiſting in his Reſolution to keep up a good Underſtanding and perfect Harmony with all the neighbouring Powers.

Paris, Sept. 21. According to Letters from Breſt, the Frigate that is to carry over M. de Bompart, the new Governor of Martinico, lies ready in the Road, but ſome ſay he is actually ſailed. They have equipp'd in the ſaid Port two Ships of the Line, and two Frigates, which are ſaid to be bound to America; and 'tis currently reported, that they will be employ'd in protecting a fair, and ſuppreſſing an illicit Commerce. It is confirmed that M. de Bompart will be charged with the King's ultimate Orders to execute what has been agreed upon with the Engliſh Commiſſaries concerning the ſpeedy Evacuation of the Iſlands of Tobago and St. Lucia, &c.

Newcaſtle, Sept. 29. Laſt Monday Night, about Eight o'Clock, Elizabeth Bennet bore a Baſtard Child on the Rocks near Tinmouth, without any Aſſiſtance; immediately after ſhe was delivered ſhe ſtrangled it and threw it over the Rocks into the Sea; and on Wedneſday Morning it was found by a Fiſherman belonging to the Port. She was apprehended as ſhe was carrying Sand between Tinmouth and Shields, and examined by a Midwife, to whom ſhe confeſſed the Murder.

LONDON.

October 2. By Letters from Cheſhire, and ſeveral Places adjacent, we hear, that they are ſo peſtered with light Guineas imported amongſt them from Ireland, that they are obliged to have Recourſe to Weights and Scales in almoſt all Payments.

Yeſterday the Dirge on account of the Death of the late King of Portugal, was performed at the Portuguese Ambaſſador's Chapel, on which Occaſion divers of the Nobility were preſent.

'Tis ſaid, his Majeſty, if he lands in Kent, will paſs over the New Bridge at Weſtminſter, and likewiſe under the grand Stone Arch, at the new Horſe Guards, Whitehall.

We hear a Domeſtic belonging to the late Duke of Richmond is appointed Houſekeeper and Officekeeper to the War Office, in the room of Mr. Machen, who has reſigned.

By the freſheſt Accounts from Warſaw we learn, that moſt of their Detiches have broke up abruptly, and that the great General of the Crown Army had ordered a large Body of his Troops to march to Helicow, a Place near Petrikow, and had expreſſed himſelf in theſe Terms, that ſo long as the World laſted, there could be no Friendſhip between Poles and Germans.

We are informed that the Watchman who was taken up on Thurſday laſt on a Suſpicion of robbing and cruelly uſing the unfortunate Mr. Eames, in Eagle-ſtreet a few Nights ſince, was diſcovered by offering a Ring to ſale at a Silverſmith's, which being ſuſpected, and the Perſon ſtopt, it proved to be one that Mr. Eames wore, and was known by a very particular Motto.

Yeſterday Mr. Murphy, in New Gravel Lane, Wapping, a famous Receiver of Goods ſtolen from the Keys, was committed to Newgate.

An Extract of a Letter from Amſterdam, dated October 1.

'Our laſt Advices from London bring, that the Engliſh Nation is greatly diſcontented with the frivolous Reaſons given by the French Court for not abſolutely evacuating the Iſlands of Tobago, St. Lucia, St. Vincent, &c. purſuant to the Convention between the two Nations. This has alleging that the French who are mixed with the Natives of theſe Iſlands, ought to be looked upon as effectually naturalized there, or rather more ſo, than the French Refugees who are in England. The French Court, for theſe Reaſons, excuſe themſelves from forcing to abandon the Eſtabliſhments which they have gained in theſe Iſlands: So that probably nothing farther will be done in this Affair than demoliſhing the little Forts that were built at the Entrance of the Bays; Works which the Inhabitants, directed by ſome French Engineers, may very eaſily rebuild, and defend with the Cannon which they have taken Care to bury. The taking from Engliſh Ships in the Bay of Honduras does not leſs irritate that Nation. Some Repreſentations have been made upon this Subject to the King at Hanover, ſhewing the Neceſſity of ſending a Squadron to the Weſt Indies to protect the Commerce and Navigation of the Engliſh, and maintain the Nation in the Right they pretend it has of cutting Wood in the Bay of Campeachy; ſetting forth likewiſe, that ſeveral of the Ships which have been ſeized upon, under Pretence of carrying on a contraband Trade, were driven upon the Coaſt of the Spaniſh Settlements by bad Weather, and that according to Treaties, the Spaniards, inſtead of ſeizing upon them, ought to have given them their beſt Aſſiſtance.

'Some private Letters from Paris give an Account, that the Counteſs de Velderen, Siſter of the Count of that Name, who a few Years ago turned Roman Catholic, has been ſuc-ly appointed by the Most Christian King, Lady of Honour to the Princess Henrietta, whose Household is forming. Most People are acquainted with the former Gallantries of this Lady, who used to say, that a fine Girl (as she then certainly was) ought to think herself above what People might take it in their Heads to say of her.'

October 4. Yesterday the following Ships were taken into the Service of the East India Company, and station'd, viz. the St. George, Capt. Robert Robinson, the Cæsar, Capt. Matthew Court, a new Ship, Capt. Gilbert Slater, and the Essex, Capt. George Jackson, for China; the Warwick, Capt. Nicholas Webb, for Madrass; the Scarborough, Capt. D'Auvergne, the Hardwick, Capt. John Sampson, the Duke of Dorset, Capt. Frognall, and the Wager, Capt. Thomas Hindman, for Coast and Bay; a new Ship, Capt. Thomas Best, a new Ship, Capt. Stephen Kirwin, the Edgcoate, Capt. William Earl Benson, and a new Ship, Capt. Philip Jodrill, for Bombay; the latter is appointed Commodore; a new Ship, Capt. Thomas Hinde, for St. Helena and Bencoolen.

The Merry Jack, Hill, from Greenland, is arrived in the River, with one Whale.

We hear from Northampton, that on Sunday last at half an Hour past Twelve o'Clock at Noon, there was a most dreadful Shock of an Earthquake felt at that Place, and about six Miles round it; a Stack of Chimneys in College Lane were thrown down by it, but no Body was hurt: It lasted almost a Minute and was much more violent than those felt in London in the Beginning of the Year.

We hear that an English Vessel laden with Corn, was taken by the Algerines on the 25th of July last, and that the Capt. and Crew were used extreamly ill: The Capt. has sent an Express to the Lords of the Admiralty with an Account, but we cannot as yet learn the Name of the Vessel.

Yesterday one John Wood was brought before Mr. Alderman Baker at Guildhall, charged upon the Oaths of Abraham Goodwin, Esq; and others, for fraudulently obtaining several Gallons of Mountain Wine, under false Tokens and Pretences. It appear'd he has made it a Practice to go with Notes in this Gentleman's Name, to divers Persons, directing them to deliver such a Quantity of Wine to him; having attained a Knowlege of Mr. Goodwin's Tradesmen, by living with him some Time ago. There were several of these Orders produced against him, which were refused to be complied with, till Mr. Goodwin had been sent to, by which Means he was at last detected.

Letter from Plymouth, dated October 7.

'Just now arrived the Archangel, Husbands, for London, 'from Barbadoes, in Nine Weeks Passage, who had been 16 'Days in Soundings. By the said Ship we have Advice, that 'the French have quitted Tobago; but still keep Possession of 'the other Neutral Islands. —— The Loretta, Litherhead, 'sailed 13 Days before the above Ship.'

October 9. They write from Paris, that they had Letters from Genoa which mention, that there was by the Genoese erected in that City a beautiful Equestrian Statue of the Duke de Richlieu, for the great Services that Gentleman had done to that Republic in Corsica, &c.

By the Lisbon Mail arrived this Day, there is a Confirmation of the Powder-Magazine, in which were upwards of 2000 Barrels, being blown up near Algiers in Barbary, and having done incredible Damage, not only to that City, but even to the Fortifications, and that several People were killed by that Accident.

October 11. Last Monday was performed at the Portugueze Chapel in Audley-street, a solemn Dirge for his late Majesty the King of Portugal, with the greatest Magnificence. Mass was sung in Musick by the ablest Performers; and a Funeral Oration, in Latin, was spoken by the Rev. Mr. Blyth, one of the Chaplains of his present most Faithful Majesty, before a very numerous Audience of Foreign Ministers and Domestic Nobility and Gentry; and the whole being conducted with Grandeur, Decency, and Regularity, was ended without the least Confusion or Disorder.
